

Julian and Sven's Poem

The student was so sleepy...

When the Dream Guide came in it was a little creepy.

The student learned about the Civil War and he did not think it was a bore.

The professor came and then

The professor found four assistants and said,

"You will do

and you will too..."

The end of the play went well and everyone thought it was swell.

The students bowed and the crowd went very loud!
